

Enterprise Content Management (ECM) Solution

Our solution encompasses strategies, methods and tools used throughout the lifecycle of documents/. It integrates, organizes, stores and processes organizations documents/content. Our solution seamlessly integrates with existing applications, and automates all manners of documents workflows in an organization according to the organizations business process

We have a state-of-the-art software for integrated document management. It can automatically process any type of document regardless of its source; with internal control procedures that enable you meet audit and compliance requirements. It imports them, classifies them, adds a fulltext index and makes them available for onward processing.

Additional Document Management functions ensure that all access is secure, controlled, and logged. Enhanced with workflow functionalities, a Web Content Management and universal integration function provides powerful Enterprise Content Management (ECM) functionality for enabling expansion throughout an organization.

It as a web enabled application offers comfort and security. Even the most exacting users will be impressed not only by the comprehensive features, but also by its user-friendliness and simple administration—all of which, together with the extensive integration capabilities and optimum security, combine to make it a product that can grow with your requirements well into the future.

Benefits Of Our EDMS

- Improves Access to Records and Information
- Improves Customer Service
- Reduces Queue Time
- Minimizes Duplication of Records
- Decreases Data Keying Requirements
- Outsources Data Entry
- Reduces Storage and Retrieval Expense
- Automates Business Processes
- Improves Regulatory Compliance
- Enables Re-use of Information
- Improves Quality of Data
- Shares Information with External Entities
- Supports External Processing
- Increases Information Security